June 1933.

Lynn Pastoral Committee held
6th mo. 6th 1933. 13 members present.

Records of the previous meeting
were read and approved.

It is with a deep sense of loss that our meeting records at this time the passing away of Cyrus Jones, the senior member of our Pastoral Committee. We shall miss the kind hospitality of his home where our meetings have been held as well as his devoted interest to our meeting.

We approve of Cecil Pearson taking his vacation during August with the exception of Quarterly Meeting day.

The following committee was appointed to care for supplies with the privilege of approaching the overseers for funds to meet any expense which may be necessary:

Ernest Bliss      Grace Atkins

John Mader      Ethel Austin

Elvira Morelli, one of the younger members of the Bible School has expressed a desire to become an associate member. The matter was laid over until the Sept. meeting when an application signed by her parents may be submitted.

An application for associate membership for Stanley Herbert Derrier Jr. the infant son of Stanley H. and Annie Deemer has been received. We are united in forwarding it to the Monthly Meeting with the recommendation that it be accepted.

Synod Pastoral Committee wishes to express its appreciation of the part taken by Jessie W. LaRouche in our meetings for worship. We feel that she has a gift of ministry and would approve of any steps taken towards its recognition by the Synod meeting, where her membership is held at the present time.

With no further business the meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Gustine, clerk.

reorganize the Round Table
at the present time.

The suggestion was made and approved of that groups should be formed to call on our shut-ins and have a short service with them.

Gertha Lincoln was appointed to make arrangements for such a group to call on Alfred & Ada Bailey.

With no further business the
meeting concluded.

Edel S. Gustin (Clerk)

was discussed, the following suggestions made: that plans for Sunday morning
services for be made a month
in advance and this monthly program be given out to friends.
that a secretary be appointed to keep in touch with members.
that meetings be held in homes occasionally and that the finance committee work to keep up the finances. Then every member canvassed for was spoken of in this connection. Owing to lack of time no action was taken on these suggestions.

We all appreciated very much the three friends who came from a distance on a stormy night to offer their advice &
help.

under the direction of the following committee & that committee responsible to the Pastoral Committee.

Lyndon La Prouche
Ernest Bliss
Grace P. Atkins

John W. Maden

John V. Morris

The object of such a Forum would be two fold: first to have presented by speakers within and without the group various topics of the day with the hope of discovering what the Christian and Quaker attitude should be in regard to them, and second, to bring new people into contact with our meeting.

The time of meeting would be Sunday evenings at 7.45 P.M.

The meeting generally expressed its approval but decided to discuss the matter further at the regular meeting held 12th mo 3<sup>d</sup>.

The meeting concluded - Ethel Aust. (clerk)

and accepted.

Bertha Linson was appointed
to secure leaders for mid-week
meetings during March.

The Pastoral Committee
planned to serve dinner Feb.
22nd to the members of the Permanent Board and other yearly mtg. committees meeting
in Lynn on that date.

A report from the chairman of the Advisory Com. of the Quaker Forum was read. It stated that there had been an increase in attendance and interest but that more could be accomplished with greater unity among those responsible for the conduct of the meetings. It asked that more members be added to the committee. Friends felt, however, that for the present the committee under appointment was sufficient and urged that they endeavor to work together with increasing unity always keeping in mind the best interests of the meeting.

With no further business the meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (Clerk)

Mar. 36- Lynn Pastoral Committee held 3rd mo. 4th 1936. Eight members present.

The records of the previous meeting were read and
approved.

A. Ella Clark was appointed
to secure leaders for mid-week
meetings during April.

A report from the Chairman
of the Quaker Forum Committee was read.

The suggestion was made that the Finance Committee be asked to appropriate $5.00
occasionally for supplies
for the Sunday morning
meeting.

The report of the spiritual condition of the meeting

which has to be forwarded to Quarterly Meeting was partly made out.

The meeting then concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

Apr. 1936. Lynn Pastoral Committee held 4th mo. 7th 1936. Eight
members present.

After a short devotional
period the records were read
and approved.

E. Florence Bliss volunteered
to secure leaders for mid-week
meetings during May.

The report of the spiritual condition of the meeting was read and discussed and some additions made.

It was decided to hold no meeting of the Quaker Forum Easter night. Further meetings of the Forum would depend <sup>some</sup> largely upon the ability of <sup>get</sup> leaders and the interest shown.

Plans for the future of our meetings ~~was~~ were discussed. It was felt that in the fall our finances would warrant the services of a part-time worker. In that connection Carleton Jones expressed the possibility of his serving in that capacity. Appreciation of his interest in the meeting and of his calls upon members was expressed. No definite decisions were made, however, since it seemed best to give further thought to the matter.

It was felt that the membership list should be revised but action was deferred until fall.

With no further business the meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk).

May '36. Lynn Pastoral Committee meeting held its 5th no. 5th 1936. 10 members present.

After a short period of silence the records were read and approved.

Jessie La Gouche brought to the committee a report of the activities of the Young Friends Group which was organized under her direction in Nov. '35. The purpose of this underlying the organization of this group was to teach Christianity, Quakerism and responsibility to the church.

Friends expressed their approval and appreciation for her report and the work done.

At her request the name of John<sup>W.</sup> Stevens was added to the list of advisors.

She also suggested for the Fall a plan of extra work in character building, music and hobbies. This was heartily approved.

Notice was given of a Sunday School party to be held May 22nd

Friends approved of discontinuing mid-week meetings
during July and August.

Florence Harmon volunteered to secure mid-week meetings leaders for the month of June; Grace T. Atkins for Sept.

The meeting concluded to meet at the regular time in sixth month.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

June '06 - At a meeting of Lynn Pastoral Committee held 6th mo.
2nd, 1936. Six members present.

The records were read and
approved.

It was decided to hold Pastoral Committee meetings
during the summer only at the call of the clerk.

Friends approved of sending out a circular letter in the fall to the members and attendees with a program for the year.

The use of the meeting house
was requested for a public meeting in behalf of the Scotsboro Defense Case. In view of our lack of knowledge of the facts of the case we feel it not wise
to loan the use of the meeting house

Among suggestions for work in the fall were the following: The need of a class to prepare for church-membership and the using of the young people in the morning service. These came as an outgrowth of the 5.30 group.

The meeting concluded to meet in 9th mo.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk.)

Aug. 19. A special meeting of Lyman Pastoral Committee was held 8th mo. 19th. 8 members present.

A request from Gertrude H. Lawrence and Marjorie Chase in regard to conducting a Little Folks School in the lower rooms of the church was considered.

Friends expressed their approval and suggested that Lulu and Marjorie work confer with the House and Finance Committees and make arrangements with them about the expense incurred.

Eikel S. Austin (clerk)

Sept. '36. At a meeting of Lynn Pastoral Committee held 9th
mo. 1st. 8 members present.

The records were read
and accepted.

Friends expressed their appreciation of and deep affection for Ernest and E Florence Bliss who are leaving to make their home in Troy N. H. Their absence from our meeting will be keenly felt for both have been faithful workers and kind friends.

Ethel Austin was appointed to secure leaders for mid-week
meetings during Oct.

It was suggested that the finance committee be asked to state the amount of money which ~~is~~ may be used for supplies for Sunday meeting.

The following committee was appointed to formulate and send out a circular letter ~~to the members~~. Grace P. Atkins, Ethel S. Austin, Sarah Hazeltine.

The same committee was asked to send out cards announcing Rally Day to the older members.

Friends approved of having a class to prepare for membership. Jessie LaRouche was approved of as teacher and with the privilege of working it out as seems best.

The clerk was instructed to send for copies of the study

outlines for The Friends World Conference.

With no further business
the meeting concluded.

Eikel S. Austin (clerk)

Oct. 6 - '36

A joint meeting of the Pastoral and Finance committees held 10th mo 6th.
Eleven members present.

The records were read
and approved.

We feel very keenly the <sup>who</sup> death of Florence Harmon for a number of years has been a member of our Pastoral Com.
Her friendliness, her ability, her willingness to serve and her fine Christian character endeared her to all.

W. Carlton Jones was appointed to secure leaders for Nov. mid-week meetings.

Friends approved of asking G. Edward Xelsey to supply for us one Sunday each month at $10.00 a Sunday, and Joseph T. Lippincott, a student at Tufts College, two Sundays a month at $5.00 a Sunday until the close of school. Friends felt that when members of our own meeting were definitely asked to supply for a Sunday they too should receive a recompense of $5.00.

The possibility of holding a Church night once or twice a month was discussed. This would include a supper, mid-week meeting and whatever committee meetings could be arranged for. The

S.S. association asked to sponsor
the first one to be held Wed. eve.
Oct. 21. If this should prove successful further plans
along the same line will be made.

Friends approved of giving
over a part of the Service, Sunday morning, Oct. 11th to a speaker
for the Community Fund.

With no further business the
meeting concluded

Ethel S. Austin (clerk.

Nov. 36.

The regular meeting of Synn Pastoral Committee was held 11th mo 3rd. There were eight members present.
After a short devotional

period the records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Bertha Simson was appointed to secure leaders for mid-week meetings during December.

Because of the Workers Conference to be held in Providence Nov. 15th and also because of the holiday the mid-week meeting on that date was cancelled.

The financial condition of the meeting was discussed and the Pastoral Committee recommended that the chairman of the Finance Committee bring before that committee the needs of the meeting and then present in whatever way her committee suggests a statement of those needs to the membership.

With no further business the meeting concluded.

Eikel S. Austin (clerk)

Nov. 18th.

At a special meeting of Lynn Pastoral Committee held 11th moth 18. There were seven members present.

Dr. Scalero, an Italian Baptist minister, presented to the committee a request for the use of the meeting house for religious services and social activities connected with the building up of a protestant church among the Italians of the city.

After thoughtful consideration it was decided to allow Dr. Seale's group the use of the lower rooms of the meeting house until the second week in Jan. for their religious services including Sunday School on Sunday 9.15 - 10.15; Sunday meeting for worship from 4-5 P.M. and mid-week meeting on Thursday evening. It is understood that the group will take care of any extra expense incurred in their use of the meeting house. It was also agreed to allow them the use of the meeting house for a Xmas play.

The meeting concluded.
Ethel Austin (clerk)

Dec. 1931. At the regular meeting of the Pastoral Committee held 15th Dec. 2nd. 7 members
present.

After a short devotional
period the records were read
and approved.

A letter from Dr. Scalers,
pastor of the Italian Baptists, expressing the appreciation of his group for the use of the meeting house was read.

Grace Atkins volunteered
to secure leaders for mid week
services during January.

Friends approved of holding the Yearly Preparative meeting on the same evening with monthly meeting, the 2nd Wed in January. It was decided to serve a supper

that preceding the meetings
with the following committee
in charge: Nettie Day, Lucy Chase, Annie Derrice, Helen Foster.

Notice was given of a Food Demonstration to be held the evening of Dec. 9th.

It was announced that the Young Friends Group was preparing a Pageant for the Sunday evening before Christmas.

With no further business
the meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

Jan. 1937. At a regular meeting of Lynn Pastoral Committee held 1st mo. 5th 1937. There were seven members present.

After a short devotional period
the records were read and
approved.

Three new members have been added to the Pastoral Committee, Anne Bernier, Jessie W. LaPouche
and Gertrude H. Lawrence.

Jessie LaPouche presented to the meeting a concern in regard to the large group of young people who have in the past been connected with our Sunday school but who do not attend anywhere at the present time.
She said that the great need of our meeting is more prayer for a deeper spiritual life.

During the discussion which followed it was also suggested that the meeting needed a vision of unselfish service.

Friends agreed to allow the Italian group the same privilege they have had during the past month & for the month of Jan. with the understanding that beginning with the 1st of Jan. they contribute $5.00 a week toward the cost of heat light and janitor service.

Carlton W. Jones was nominated clerk of Reparative Meeting.

Eleanor Stevens asked permission to present a play by the younger group at a later date, the proceeds for the benefit of some department of the church. This request was granted.

The matter of an Easter program, <sup>for Easter S. evening</sup> was spoken of. It was suggested that the older group of young friends be asked to plan for that time. It was left with Ethel Austin to bring it to their attention.

A meeting of Ministry & Oversight was called for Sunday Jan. 10th.

With no further business the meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk).

Feb. 07- At a meeting of Lynn Pastoral Com. held 2nd mo. 2nd.

adjourned to meet 2nd mo. 10th.
Ethel Austin (clerk)

Feb. 10. At a meeting of Lynn
Pastoral Committee held 2nd mo.
10th 12 members present.

Following a period of fellowship during which ~~the P.C.~~ we enjoyed an oyster stew supper served by Esau and Herman Lawrence and a time of for devotions the business of the committee was taken up.

The records of the previous
meeting were read and
approved.

Echel S. Austin was reappointed clerk for one year.

The clerk was asked to speak to Dr. Scales, pastor of the Italian Group in regard to their contribution, toward the <sup>the</sup> expenses of heating and lighting the meeting house.

The women of the Pastoral Com. expressed their willingness to prepare a dinner for the Permanent Board & yearly mtg. committee members meeting in Lynn the 22nd of Feb.

Notice was given of a Temperance moving picture to be <sup>shown</sup> given the evening of the 22nd by James Coney and Edward Felsey. Mrs. Simson was asked to see that the notice was given to local W.C. T. U. workers.

A letter from the Ministerial Fellowship was read asking for the opinion of our group ~~down~~ toward religious education in the Public Schools. It was felt that we needed a little more time to consider the matter before expressing an opinion.

Friends approved of changing the time of Pastoral Com. meetings from the 1st Tues. in each month to the 1st Wed. following the mid-week service, moving forward the time of mid week meeting to 7.40.

G. Ella Clark was appointed to secure leaders for mid week
meetings during Feb.

A letter from Rev. Perry Van Dyke, pastor of a church in Ellenville N. Y. <sup>was read.</sup> He expressed his deep interest in our meeting. Friends approved of asking him if he would be at liberty to supply for us
some Sunday in April.

It was suggested that the name of the clerk be given to the Ministerial Fellowship
in order that we may more promptly receive notices which should come to the attention of our meeting.

The meeting then concluded.
Evel S. Austin (clerk)

May 37. Lynn Pastoral Committee held its regular meeting 3rd month, 3rd. There were 13 members present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

The spiritual condition of the meeting was discussed and the clerk instructed to bring in a statement in regard to it.

It was suggested that the clerk write both Dr. Seale and Mr. Dolan in regard to the contribution due from the Italian Group for their use of the Meeting House.

Jessie La Bouché, Annie Derrier and Ethel S. Austin

were appointed a committee to prepare a statement to send to Mr. Harvey Brewer in regard to religious instruction for the children of the public school. This committee is to report to the Pastoral Committee before forwarding its suggestions.

Herman and Gertrude Lawrence asked for the use of the Meeting house on the evening of May. 16th for a party for the young people and their friends. The Pastoral Committee gave its approval.

Le Roy S. Austin told of being approached by the Sec. of the Board of Deacons of another Protestant Church as to the possibility of our selling our Meeting House to them for their use. Friends seemed to feel that such a step could not be considered.

Fatie Coffin, a member of our Pastoral Com., is leaving soon to live with a son in N. Y. Friends approved of giving her a little remembrance + of making special mention of her in Sunday morning meeting.

It was suggested that Margery and Everett Chase be asked to secure leaders for Apr. mid-week meetings.

The meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

Ep 137. At a meeting of Lynne
Pastoral Committee held 4th mo. 7th, 1937. Nine
members present.

The records were read
and approved.

Friends approved of permitting the Italian Group
to use the Meeting House
during March and April
without making any contribution toward expenses. It was also suggested that a recompense be given Mr.
Pearlee for extra janitor
service given since the group has used the meeting House,
the money to be taken from whatever contribution is received from them.

Emma G. Fisher was appointed to secure leaders for mid-week services during May.

Notice was given of a special missionary service to be held Wed. evening, Apr. 21.

Appreciation was expressed for the work of Lartinde and Herman Lawrence in taking arranging special mid-week services during Lent.

Ethel S. Gustin and John H. Mader were appointed delegates to a meeting of the Gen. Com. of the Churches with the Home Mission Council to consider matters important to the Church Life of the City. It was suggested that the Bulletin Board on the front of the church be renovated and the matter brought to the attention of the House Com.

It was left with Jessie W. LaFouche to plan for a church supper to be given by her Sunday school class. The proceeds from the supper, are to be used to pay for redecorating her S.S. classroom.

The meeting concluded.
Ethel Austin (clerk,

May 1937 - Lynn Pastoral Committee held its regular meeting 5th mo. 1937 with eleven
members present.

The records were read and
approved.

Echel Austin reported that a check of $45 had been received from the Baptist Association as a contribution toward the expense of heating and lighting
the meeting <sup>house</sup> for the Italian Group during the winter.
This check has been turned over to the Treasurer of the meeting.

A letter from Harvey Guver, Supt. of Lynn Schools stated that the thought of religious education in connection with the public schools has been dropped for the time being due to a lack of response from the churches.

John W. Mader reported on the meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. in regard to federated church activities. No action was taken but a religious census and the Italian work was discussed and a committee appointed to look into both matters and report later.

Since Joseph T. Lippincott will not be able to supply for us after May 23 - it was decided to ask Edward Felsey if he could give us two Sundays a month with the exception of August which is partially arranged for.

It was suggested that the bulletin board needed renovating and the matter was referred to the house committee.

With no further business the meeting concluded

Ethel Austin (clerk)

June 1937 - Lynn Pastoral Committee held its regular meeting 6th mo. 2nd. Eight members present.

The records were read and approved.

Lynn Pastoral Committee
held 8th mo. 23th. There were 10 friends present <sup>to meet</sup> also Rev.
Perry Van Dyke and his wife.

The meeting opened with a season of earnest prayer.
Then for over two hours

a frank discussion of our needs and possibilities as a meeting were discussed. At the close of that time as a committee we were united in expressing to Perry & Florence Van Dyke our desire to call them to service in Lynn Meeting. They also expressed their willingness to be used ~~in the work in~~ in Lynn.

The matter of drawing up a recommendation and call to be sent to Monthly Meeting was deferred until the 8th regular time of Pass. no. 3, th. The meeting then concluded Echel S. Austin (clerk.

Aug. 31 - At a meeting of Lyman
Pastoral Committee held
8th mo 31. <sup>etc</sup> There were ten friends present.

The records were read
and approved.

Friends approved of sending
the following minute to the Monthly Meeting:

After prayerful and careful consideration the Pastoral Committee unites in recommending to the Monthly Meeting that a call to serve as pastor of Litchie St. Friends Meeting for a period of, at least, three years be extended to the Perry Van Dyke of Ellenville, N. Y.

Friends approved of giving him a salary of $200 yearly, plus an apartment (in the Haverford or Earlham). The use of a part of the church shed as a garage, & a room in the church for a study.

Moving expenses were talked of but no decision made because of a lack of information.

John Madew and Le Roy Austin was asked to make inquiries.

The Pastoral Committee approved of requesting the Overseers to grant $2000 yearly from the Mary E. Goldsmith Fund for Pastoral support.

The meeting concluded to meet at the call of the clerk.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

Lynn Pastoral Committee
held 1st mo. 29th 1937.

Ten members present.

The records were read and
approved.

Friends made out a contract calling Perry Van Dyke to minister to Lynn Meeting for a period of three years, at least.

A letter from Willis White was read which stated that no apartments were available.
We, therefore, must find a suitable home for Perry Van Dyke & family.

The Pastoral Committee
requests the Overseers to guarantee that our obligations to Perry Van Dyke are met.

monthly for a period of three years. This includes salary, $2000 and rent up to $10 weekly.

After discussing several minor matters the meeting concluded.

Echel S. Austin (clerk)

At a called meeting of Lynn Pastoral Committee held 10th mo.
24th 1937

Lynn Pastoral Committee held
10th mo. 27- 1937.

12 members present.

After a devotional period

the minutes of the last meeting were read.

A cottage house on East Park Ave. has been rented for Perry Alan Dyke. The difficulty in finding a suitable rent for a parsonage has brought home to Friends the need of a permanent parsonage. Le Roy Austin suggested that it might be a good investment for some of the Mary A. Goldsmith funds to purchase a cottage house in a good location to be used as such. Friends approved of this suggestion. No action was taken.

Friends approved of holding a reception the evening of Nov. 19 - Herman & Gertrude Lawrence were appointed to have charge of refreshments and decorations with the help of other young friends; The program and invitation list ~~was~~ to be prepared by the rest of the Committee.

The meeting concluded.

Ethel S. Austin (clerk)

members present.

The meeting opened with a devotional service followed by the reading of the records.

The bulletin board was discussed and, <sup>it was</sup> left with the house committee to plan with Perry Vlaw Dyke as to what should be posted. It was <sup>also</sup> suggested that the house committee

place lights at both <sup>front</sup> corners of the meeting house. The possibility of a sign at the Broad St. entrance to the Meeting House was spoken of.

The invitation for the reception was written.

Clayton Spinner, Telford
Jones, Fred Foster and Everett
Chase were appointed ushers
for the reception.

Notice of the Missionary
Sale and supper to be given

Dec. 37- Lynn Pastoral Committee held 12th mo. 7th, 1937.

There were nine members
present.

The meeting opened with a short devotional period.

Benny Hawdyke reported on a Ministerial Association Mtg.

which he had attended

The committee appointed to confer with Mildred Sawyer, Shirley Simson, Pearl Hoffman and Florence Stevens in regard to their membership gave a favorable report. Therefore Friends united in forwarding their requests for membership & the Monthly Meeting with the recommendation that they be accepted.

Perry Van Dyke reported that the committee appointed to look into the matter of Hymn Books had examined a number but was not quite ready to give a final report. The committee was continued.

Friends expressed their approval of the Teacher Training Course which Perry Van Dyke is presenting at Mid-week nity.

It is requested that notices be placed on the pulpit before meeting on Sunday. Those unable to do this may telephone the clerk of the P. C. and <sup>she</sup> they will attend to the matter.

Perry Van Dyke asked to whom he was responsible. We wish to put on record that his responsibility is to the Pastoral Committee. Friends having concerns for special activities for the meeting were also urged to present such concerns to the P. C. for its consideration.

Perry Van Dyke was given liberty to arrange for special was speakers on occasions

when time will not permit calling a P. C.

Eleanor Stevens asked permission to put on a secular play the latter part of Jan. The matter was referred to the following com: Bertha Simson, Perry Van Dyke, A. Ella Clark.

Nettie Day, Bertha Simson,
